

The Improvisors make people laugh.

Since 1990 we have brought our innovative approach to entertainment, training and facilitation at events, large and small, throughout New Zealand and the Pacific.

We are Wellington's first and most experienced corporate theatre company - bringing a wealth of knowledge and professionalism to any event or conference. Our cast of actors, comedians, MCs, trainers and facilitators work to create performances that are unique and tailor-made to our clients. We make your function memorable.

Last year we performed at over 180 functions.

In addition to our ever-popular improvised Comedy Show we did everything from:

Hosting a party as the staff of Hogwarts' School • delivering Shakespearean soliloquies • creating a murder mystery in an Irish parish • interrupting a conference of tourist operators as German backpackers • introducing a telephone company to 3 generations of the Santa Claus family • trained ambulance staff • brought the world of the Lord of the Rings into conferences • flew Santa out to a party by chopper • passed ourselves off as Moldovan wine experts • hosted 150 Asian bankers on a 5 day kiwi experience in Queenstown • delivered a keynote address in the guise of a Canadian education expert • interviewed for jobs at an agricultural supply company • helped run a Winter Olympics on a mountain-top during a snowstorm • entertained the top NPC referees and coaches • performed on a tug boat • held a rugby tournament in a boardroom • turned a training day into an episode of "Survivor" • costumed ourselves entirely in surgical wrap • had ourselves made into life-sized cut-outs • revived the Love Boat, Miami Vice and The A-Team for dedicated fans • helped an insurance company host a night of Broadway musicals • created our own version of "University Challenge" • gave a taste of the Antarctic to garden centre owners from around the world • taken an outdoor clothing company lawn-bowling with Santa and one of his little helpers • impersonating the French ambassador • sprinkling a touch of Oscar's magic at a host of glittering company dinners

Now's your chance to experience The Improvisors for yourself. In the page following we have a selection of some of our more popular products. This is, by no means, an exhaustive selection and more can be found at www.theimprovisors.co.nz.

We also pride ourselves on the ability to create a totally unique entertainment solution for any occasion, so if you can't find anything you want off the shelf feel free to get in contact and we can design something especially for you.
